

AFTERNOON TEA WITH ALLYSON GOFTON

Allyson shares the stories and baking of many of our great farming families including Erewhon, Bendigo, Maniototo's Penvose Farm, Mt Nicholas, Hawkes Bay's Tuna Nui, Gisborne's Puketiti, Hunterville's Puketoi & Arapawa Island in this very special cookbook which celebrates fifty years of Country Calendar.

© Rachael Hale McKenna

Sunday, 3 April, 2016

2.30pm

Hope Community Hall, Ranzau Road West, Hope

Tickets $30 (includes afternoon tea) from Richmond Mall administration counter; Stirling Sport, Nelson 247 Trafalgar St, Nelson; Whitwells Motueka, 182 High St, Motueka; Nelson Weekly, 75 Tahunanui Drive Nelson; Waimea Weekly 6 Salisbury Rd Richmond or email Janet Taylor: janetbilltaylor@gmail.com

Books available for purchase at the event. All event proceeds to help provide school and sports shoes to school children in need through Walk with Us.

Penguin
Random House
New Zealand